Producer/Presenter: Tony Ryan Education Consultant: Greg Carey

Produced with support of the Law Foundation of South Australia

Program summary

This program has a focus on defining our terms. Is it bullying, or is it fighting? We then look at some of the interventions that have been found to work to assist those young people who have been subjected to cyber-bullying.

Interviewee

Associate Professor Marilyn Campbell, School of Learning and Professional Studies, Queensland University of Technology

Listen

Download this program – from www.learningworksradio.com – and listen at home or in your car, or in a group around a table at home or in the staff room. Duration approx 15 mins.

Table Talk

Use these questions as springboards to a discussion on some of the issues raised in the program. Before you end the discussion, agree on some action outcomes.

- How is cyber bullying different from the traditional forms we know?
  - What is the difference between aggression and bullying?
  - What are the three main ingredients for bullying?
  - What do we know about the interventions for bullying?
  - Marilyn Campbell talks about two waves of bullying. What does she suggest can help students get through these waves? What are the most important things to consider?
  - Schools and parents have very different attitudes to Mobile phones. How does this affect the relationships between schools and parents?
